

ON TARGET TWO

IDAHO PITA NEWSLETTER

ISSUE #31. NOVEMBER – DECEMBER, 2017.

As we mentioned in the last OT2, fall is a great time to be shooting in Idaho, unless you get the bad luck that Caldwell and Boise got at their shoots in November. The two weekends before and the two weekends after would have been very nice for shooting but the weekend of November 4th and 5th had a week of ugly weather forecasts proceed it and then the weekend itself was a very mixed bag of weather. The November Multiplex was also shot that weekend so it was tough conditions all around for the PITA registered shooting in November. The only registered shooting in December was the Multiplex the weekend of December 2nd and 3rd.

Here are the shoot results, winners, and high scores for Caldwell and Boise and the two Multiplex shoots.

Caldwell Fall Shoot. November 4th, 2017.

Steve Spencer was the singles champion with his lone 100 straight. Clay Brown led the doubles scoring with 93, and Jim Cahoon won a three round shoot-off over Liz Harris to take the handicap championship with 92. Cahoon also edged out Chuck Terry by one tiny target to take the HOA champion's pin with his 274 score.
