

ON TARGET TWO

IDAHO PITA NEWSLETTER

ISSUE # 44, NOVEMBER, 2019.

Registered shooting continued in Idaho with some nice Fall shooting weather for the Multiplex and the Caldwell shoot in November.

Caldwell Gun Club. November 2nd, 2019.

32 shooters took advantage of very nice weather and fired at 7,300 registered targets on a sunny day with very little wind.

Junior shooter and new PITA member Mason Renslow won the handicap by five birds with his 93. He also earned his Idaho 25 and 50 straight PITA pins.

Chester Carter was high in the doubles with his 89 and Jim Cahoon had a 99 in singles to top the 98's of John Fulghum and Terry Cook. Kent Harris took the HOA champion's pin with 264 edging out Jason Hicks by one.

That brings us up- to- date on PITA shooting in Idaho through November.

The next OT2 will cover the December and January Multiplex shoots and will “probably” have the results for the 2019
Idaho PITA All-Star Team.

Stay warm, enjoy the holidays, and go out and shoot at your local club.

REMEMBER!

SHOOT!!

TRY TO WIN!!!

HAVE FUN!!!!
