SHOOTERS

Since 1993, the MEDFORD GUN CLUB has hosted a Pendleton Blanket Trapshoot. However, this year, due to inventory and corona virus problems, the Club is going to turn this annual shoot into a money shoot. We are in hopes of returning to a blanket shoot next year if (hopefully) corona virus goes away and blanket inventories return to normal levels.

This will be a 500-target program and the Club will be open Friday, at 10am, for practice and/or the marathon doubles program. In addition, those shooters who wish to shoot event three doubles can do so.

The Club will once again offer $1,000.00 to any shooter hitting 100 straight in either of the handicap events. In the event of more than one shooter coming in with a 100 straight in the same event, the money will be split. There is no entry fee for this option and all registered handicap shooters are eligible.

Due to corona virus concerns, there will be no Saturday night dinner; however, after the end of all events Saturday, there will be pizza and beer for the Calcutta. The Club café will be open (maybe) for lunch only from 10am to 2pm Saturday and Sunday.

As always, you are welcome to use the R.V. parking, dump station and shower facilities anytime. Parking is on a first come basis with a $10.00 per night hook-up fee.

We are looking forward to seeing everyone at this shoot and the Club thanks you for your support and participation. We will see you soon!
