IDAHO PITA NEWSLETTER

ISSUE #55. APRIL, 2021

This issue of OT2 will cover the results of the Caldwell Silver shoot on April 10th, the April Multiplex, The SRTA Championships at Twin Falls on April 17th and 18th, and the Wood River Juan Goitiandia Memorial shoot on April 24th.

Caldwell Silver shoot. April 10th, 2021.

Despite the forecast for very windy conditions, 38 shooters had a bright sunny day with breezes in the doubles and singles events and then enough wind in the handicap to keep all scores but one under 90. 8900 registered targets were thrown.

Clay Brown led scoring in the doubles with 93, the singles with 98, and won the HOA champion's pin by 4 birds with his 275 score. Sub-Junior shooter Kelsey Wickham was the only shooter to break 90 in the handicap as she topped the event by 2 targets with her score of 91.

A good crowd of 79 shooters enjoyed spring weather that was cool Saturday morning and breezy Sunday afternoon to fire at 30,200 registered targets.

David Poseley used his 100 straight on Sunday to carry him to the singles championship with his 196. Clay Brown won the HOA champion's pin with his 466 score. Kent Graham took the doubles championship in a shoot-off of 95's over Brown while Mason Ward had the high doubles score of 96.

Gene Watson was the top shooter in the President's handicap on Saturday by two with his 95. This earned him his first yardage ever. Jason Baca defeated Mike Houser in a shoot-off of 92's to win the SRTA Handicap championship. Terry
Cook had the high handicap score of 94.

Aiden Vissor and Cody Wheeler earned their Idaho 25 straight pins.
