Welcome to Evergreen Sportsmen's Club and our annual July 4th Shoot.

I would like to take this opportunity to say thank you for your continued Evergreen patronage. Hopefully, the “blood, sweat and tears” that many folks have put into making the attributes of Evergreen an enriched facility for your shooting enjoyment, are readily noticeable.

Over the month of July, we will host 18 days of shooting. Promptly following our July 4th shoot is the Washington State Shoot which will be followed by the Grand Pacific. We have diligently put in the efforts to make the target presentation better than ever. Evergreen is very fortunate to have a Board of Trustees who unanimously agreed to purchase 10 brand new Pat traps. And Ron and Scott have meticulously gone over our other traps to assure they are in tip-top shape. Our report card will be manifested for all to see as over this period of time, we anticipate throwing approximately 500,000 targets. Even my toes quiver when I say that!

As I have previously expressed, over the next month, you will be able to scrutinize Evergreen and if you see opportunities for improvements, please tell me, that is how we will get better. I also solicit your allegiance; if you notice things that are deserving of a positive comment – tell a friend, tell another shooter – be an ambassador for Evergreen as what you say is significantly more impactful than what we say.

Thanks,

Joel

From the Evergreen Sportsmen's Club's Board:

To our members, the WSPITA, PITA and our fellow shooters, we would like to express our thanks, without you, these shoots wouldn't be possible.

We would like to give special recognition and say thanks to all of our sponsors and advertisers. I would encourage everyone who has a need that could be rectified by one of our sponsors to, at least, give them an opportunity to consult with you. It goes without saying, these sponsors fall into the same category as many other businesses in the year of the COVID-19 pandemic. They have suffered the same consequences and even so, have decided to support our efforts to present shoots to you that are enjoyable and exceed your expectations.

Thank you!
