

ON TARGET TWO

IDAHO PITA NEWSLETTER

ISSUE #58. JULY – AUGUST, 2021.

Well, we've made it to August. Now if Covid would stay away and we could find some shells, there is lots of good shooting weather ahead for the rest of the year (and lots of good shoots).

This OT2 will cover the results of the July and August Multiplex shoots as well as results from the Grand Pacific in July.

July Multiplex.

29 Clubs. 311 Shooters. 40,700
Registered targets.

Idaho shooters hit 21 Lewis class cash pay-offs in the July Multiplex. Clay Brown had one of the high scores of 49 in the Sub-gauge event.

Grand Pacific Championships. Evergreen Gun Club. Littlerock, Washington. July 25-31, 2021. Pre-Grand. July 24th.

After a year off (because of Covid) the Grand Pacific was back. It seemed strange not seeing any Canadian shooters who usually come down in large numbers but there were still around 250 shooters in the Singles and Handicap Championship events.

Idaho shooters did well throughout the week with highlights being the winning of two handicaps by young Idaho shooters and Chester Carter winning or being in shoot-offs seven times. Jake White won the Event 12 handicap with a 97 and a shoot-off win while Aiden Visser won the "Big One" as his 98 was all alone in the Grand Pacific Handicap on Saturday.

Here is a list of Idaho Shooters who either won or made it into shoot-offs during the week.

Other Idaho Grand Pacific Notes.

Congratulations to Mike Houser who broke his first 100 straight (good place to do it – at the Grand Pacific). Also his daughter Gwen represented Idaho in the Lady Champion of Champions race and fired a fine 97 but was edged out by one target. Gwen also has been selected to be the new assistant to the PITA secretary and will be helping Kay with much of the work involved in running the association.
