Congratulations to the eight Idaho shooters who also earned spots on the Parent PITA Association All-Star teams.

Mike Houser took the second spot on the Men's first team. Kyle Perry and Waylon Klundt took the second and fourth spots on the Men's second team. Chester Carter earned the first spot on the Senior Vet team while Kent Harris was third on the Elder team.

Mason Ward and Gwen Houser were second and third on the Junior Second team while Kelsey Wickham landed in the second spot on the Sub-Junior team.

For both Housers, Perry, Ward and Wickham it was their first Parent PITA All-Star selection. Klundt was making his third appearance, Carter his sixth and Harris his tenth.

Congratulations to everyone who earned a spot on either team (or both) on a very successful 2021 shooting year.

Well, that takes care of another year of registered shooting in Idaho. Remember that there is a Multiplex to shoot each month and the regular registered shoots start up again at the end of March.

Best wishes for 2022 from the Idaho PITA. We can hope for less Covid and more shells and components in the coming year. Try and support your local club at their fun shoots, leagues, etc. during these winter months.

Remember!

Shoot!!

Try to Win!!!

Have Fun!!!!
