

ON TARGET TWO

IDAHO PITA NEWSLETTER

ISSUE 63. APRIL 2022

April was a busy shooting month for the PITA in Idaho (and Nevada). This OT2 will report on shoots in Caldwell, Spring Creek (Nevada), Twin Falls, and Wood River. We will also cover the April Multiplex results.

Caldwell – April 2nd.

Kelsey Wickham continued her hot Spring shooting as she won the HOA champion's pin with 268 X 300 on a breezy shooting day. 57 shooters fired at 11,900 targets. Wickham also easily won the singles with her 98 which was four birds ahead of the field. Chester Carter and Jed Yore led in the doubles event with 92's and Tim Hunt won a shoot-off over Kam Shaver after their 89's were high in the handicap

30 Idaho shooters earned Idaho All-Star team points at this shoot.

We do not usually publish shoot results from outside of Idaho, but at the Spring Creek shoot in Nevada the majority of the shooters were from Idaho and a lot of them did well. So, here are those results.

Spring Creek, Nevada. April 9th and 10th.

Over 40 shooters took part in the two-day event. Weather was better than expected with some breeze at times, but it turned quite cold the day after the shoot was over.

Kyle Perry won the 200 doubles event with 192. Rick Bradshaw, Murry Deforest and Clay Brown topped the Saturday Handicap with 94's while Bernie Voyles and Gwen Houser were almost perfect with 99's in the singles.

Broden Pirkle was the handicap champion on Sunday and Brown took the HOA champion's pin with 468.
