Idaho PITA Handicap Marathon. Caldwell Gun Club. May 7, 2022.

47 shooters fired at 15,600 targets on a day that saw thunderstorms all around the shoot but none hit the club.

Kyle Perry topped the first handicap with his 94 and it earned him a punch and his PITA 27-yard pin. Mike Clark and Clay Brown were high on the second handicap with 93's and Gwen Houser's 95 in the third handicap was the high score of the day.

On the three hundred handicap total, sub-junior Weston Andersen led scoring with 276 to take champion's honors. Brad Visser won short yardage with 268, Houser led mid-yardage with 273 and Brown won long yardage with 267.

In the doubles event three 94's led the scoring with Chris Felty winning a shoot-off over Guy Johnson and Tim Hunt.

Houser rode her 95 in the last handicap to a five-bird win for the HOA champion's pin with a 365 score.

Tyson Hunt and Weston Anderson both earned their Idaho PITA 25 straight pins at this shoot.

PITA 500 Bird Singles Marathon. May 22, 2022. Pocatello Trap Club.

35 shooters thought they had a nice day to shoot – and it was, except for one event where a thunderstorm blew through and part of it was shot in wind – rain- hail – and cold. 23 shooters shot all 500 targets and qualified for their “I Shot It All” personalized plaques. 15,100 registered targets were thrown, and some good scores were shot.

Kent Graham posted a perfect 100 in the second event and Waylon Klundt had the only other perfect score for the day in event 4.

Waylon captured the big prize of the day winning the HOA champion's personalized buckle with his 492-score topping Clay Brown by 3 targets. Winning buckles for best 300 totals were: Bob Tomlin, Brown, Kyle Perry, John Workman, Ryan Crister, Kay Klundt, Guy Johnson, Kelsey Wickham, and Paul Jensen.
