Rodney loved hunting and fishing. During hunting season he was gone every weekend. He would be out with his family and friends. He made all the hunting trips memorable and enjoyed the weekends. When he was not hunting or fishing he was instructing hunter safety courses.

Rodney was an avid trapshooter. He was a member of both the Eel River Gun Club and the Humboldt Trap and Skeet Club. He shot competitive trap with the PITA for many years. He traveled up and down California and into Oregon to shoot competitively. Sundays you could find him at the gun club, enjoying a morning of shooting and visiting with friends. Trapshooting was a family sport, he was surrounded by his father, children, nieces and many friends at the gun club.

Rodney was preceded in death by his parents, Fred and Eilene Bones.

He is survived by his daughter Julene Bones, his grandchildren Josh Robinson, Teasha Locke and her husband Adam, Timothy Jones and his wife Brandy, and Makayla Jones. He is survived by his son Scott Bones and wife Eveliz, and his granddaughter Annika. He is survived by his daughter Lindsay Bones and his granddaughters Emilee and Cameron Garfield. He also has many great grandchildren, cousins, and friends. Rodney was very loved by all.

A celebration of life will be held on June 12 at 2 p.m. at the Eel River Gun Club in Fortuna. In lieu of flowers, please donate on his behalf to your favorite charity.
