

ON TARGET TWO

IDAHO PITA NEWSLETTER

ISSUE # 72. MAY, 2023.

This OT2 will bring you the results of the Handicap Marathon at Twin Falls held May 6th, the Treasure Valley Singles Marathon at Boise on May 20th, and the May Multiplex results. We'll also throw in Idaho winners from the Nevada state PITA shoot at Fallon May 19-21.

State Association Handicap Marathon. May 6th at Twin Falls.

What looked like a bad day for a shoot (rain), turned into a pretty nice day and 26 shooters fired at 9,500 registered targets on a day that saw on-and-off clouds, very little breeze, nice temperatures, and no rain.

Alex Bringham and Kelsey Wickham shared the HOA championship. Alex was high in one handicap, second in another. Mike Houser and Chester Carter led the doubles event with 97's. Kelsey rode constancy to her share of the HOA with scores of 92-93-93-93 for her 371 total.

Clay Brown was high in the second handicap with 95, while Stuart Welton and Brian Lancaster topped the final handicap with their 94's.

Idaho PITA Singles Marathon May 20 at the Boise Gun Club.

36 shooters fired at 15,600 targets on a warm day with little wind and the scores were high. Ten 100's were shot with Tony Shuyler running the first 300. In event one he was joined by Robert Renteria and Waylon Klundt. In the second event Gwen Houser and Kelsey Wickham also had 100's. Houser and

Wickham also had perfect scores in event 4 and Klundt had the only 100 in event 5.

26 of the 36 shooters shot all 500 targets and earned a personalized "I Shot It All" plaque for completing the Marathon. Shuyler won the coveted High-Over-All buckle with his 496 but Houser and Wickham were right behind with 495 and 494.

26 shooters shot the entire 500 bird program. They were: Tony and Tammy Shuyler, Waylon Klundt, Gwen Houser, Jeff and Tina Wright, Kelsey Wickham, Clay Brown, George Stevens, Robert Renteria, Kent Harris, Kelly Wickham, Jeff Riedesel, Rick Bradshaw, Mike Strong, Don McFarland, Chuck Terry, Blake McCutcheon, Paul Goldsmith, Chance Shippy, Chris Larsen, Nate Amrein, Kelli Kennedy, Bob Holland, Vincent Birchfield, and Bobbie Freelove.
