Camille and Robert McCullough traveled from Pensacola, Florida and won numerous trophies including the Handicap Championship Saturday which moved Robert back to the 23.5 yardline.

Mac Robertson missed his first target in Sunday's Singles, then crushed 99 straight for the win.

Cliff Sackett shot his first 50 straight in Saturday's Singles.

Oregon 2023 Rookie of the Year, Jamie White added to his laurels by winning the final Handicap on his way to securing the Jim Mast Memorial buckle which is awarded to the shooter with the highest score in all four Myrtle Point Handicaps thrown during the target year. Jamie's final tally was 356 x 400. "Andy" Damewood was second with 352, Jeff Stephens was third with 350.
