

ON TARGET TWO

IDAHO PITA NEWSLETTER

ISSUE # 85 – OCTOBER – NOVEMBER, 2024.

This issue of OT2 will bring you the results of the Multiplex shoots for October and November as well as information on an important change in the selection process for the Idaho PITA All-Star teams beginning with the 2025 target shooting year.

Change in Selection Process for the Idaho PITA All-Star Teams.

Beginning with target year 2025 all teams will be selected based on composite target average along with the following requirements:

Open and Men's Team – 1,000 singles, 1,000 handicap and 700 doubles.

Ladies' Team – 500 singles, 500 handicap and 200 doubles.

Vet categories and Juniors – 500 singles, 500 handicap and 200 doubles.

Along with the minimum target requirements, all must shoot four clubs (in state or out) and the ID PITA state shoot the HAA Events.

October Multiplex Results.

Handicap Punches: 50 (3) one yard. 49 (4) one yard. 48 (8) half yard.

38 clubs – 368 shooters – 51,700 targets

The following Idaho shooters earned handicap yardage: Adrian Flores – 49. Larry Eells - 49. Gene Watson – 48. Nick Morrison – 48. Dyrk Rogers – 48. Erik Zimmerman – 48.

Levi Harrison from Weiser and Erik Zimmerman from Wood River were the only Idaho shooters to break 50 straight in the singles event.

Tony Shuyler, shooting out of Weiser, earned a very nice payday by breaking the only 50 in the doubles event and Clay Brown led the Sub-Gauge event with his lone 50 score.
